Mayor's Message

I want to wish everybody all the best for 2023.

We are now in our 3rd month with our new Council & are now hard at work on our first budget for this Council. If anybody has any concerns or requests please contact Breigh at the Town Office.

Healthcare continues to be one of our top priorities

CAO Report

Welcome to our first Town of Melita Newsletter. Our focus will be to keep everyone up to date on local events, projects, and helpful information. Council would like to invite our local community to reach out to us at the Town office with information and events you would like to share. Working closely with our community is a priority and constructive suggestions from our residents and local business owners are encouraged.
